Have you considered the following scheduling implications? (Refer to section 8.4 Handbook for Principals – NAPLAN online):

- Tests have been scheduled in the following order: Writing > Reading > Conventions of Language > Numeracy
- Writing must be scheduled from Day 1 and completed by Day 2 (catch ups excluded)
- All classes/year levels in a school must complete a test domain before classes commence the next test domain (not applicable to catch ups)
- Because of the tailored test design, students should be given the opportunity to complete a Reading catch up before sitting the Conventions of Language Test
